Family, Friends, Faith & Fun

Connections are important. Having a family, making friends, belonging to a community, and being connected are ways of fostering spiritual health. We invite you to come and make significant and lasting connections that will bless you on your faith journey.

USAF Chaplain Corps

Helping people is our highest priority.

Chaplains and Chaplain Assistants provide spiritual guidance in matters pertaining to religious faith, ethical decision-making, moral reasoning, personal growth, marital issues, wedding preparation and more.

Every unit has an assigned Religious Support Team.

You have the right to Privileged Communication when speaking with a chaplain.

"Under no circumstances may a chaplain disclose privileged communication revealed in the practices of his/her ministry without the individual counselee's informed, written consent." (AFI 52-101 para. 5.1.1)
